July President's Message

Friends,

I often find myself in discussions with friends, talking about one or another of the situations in the world, political, economic, social, artistic, in which it appears that civilization is on the point of collapse. As we discuss these situations, we talk about what they (the ubiquitous “they”, representing the powers-that-be) ought to do about whatever it is, and we talk about what we ought to do. At that point, someone usually says something like “but what can one person do?”

There are lots of situations where the additional efforts of a single person might appear futile, but there are others in which one person can make a difference. There are lots of ways in which one person can make a difference at BHBI. At lots of our services, one or two people make the difference between having a minyan and not having a minyan. With many of our minyanim, if one or two people had decided to sleep in, we would not have had a minyan.

Now it is summer. Many people are going away for vacation. We need additional people for our services. Of course, I'd love for a few more people to get the every-Saturday habit. However, if you don't come regularly to services, coming to even one time a month can make a big difference. It would be nice to see some of you a little more regularly. We can have our Torah service if we have a minyan by 10:30. If you have Jewish guests from out of town, bring them with you. It's a friendly atmosphere and they'll probably be offered an aliyah.

On a more solemn note, Tisha b'Av is early this year, beginning on Monday evening July 15th. We'll be having a joint service together with Temple Beth Am at BHBI, with the service starting at 8:30 PM following a brief study session that precedes it at 8:00. Please join us for both the study session and the service.

Finally, I want to thank everyone who offered us good wishes and congratulations on our daughter Hannah's graduation from Rochester School for the Deaf.

Have a great summer, and spend some of it with us.

B'shalom,

Leon Metlay

TISHA B'AV

What is Tisha b'Av and why do we commemorate it? Tisha b'Av, the 9th day of the Hebrew month of Av, is commemorated as a fast day because of the many tragedies that have befallen our people on that day:

- The decree that our forefathers would not be able to enter the promised land for 40 years
- The destruction of the First Temple by the Babylonians
- The destruction of the Second Temple by the Romans
- The capture of the Romans of Beitar, the last Jewish fortress to hold out during the Bar Kochba Rebellion
- The day in 1290 when all the Jews were ordered to leave England
- The day in 1492 when all Jews in Spain had to be baptized or had to leave Spain at the beginning of the Spanish Inquisition
- The day on which World War I began

Because of the many tragedies that have befallen our people on Tisha b'Av, in addition to fasting, it is customary to refrain from normal activities on Tisha b'Av, to read from the Book of Lamentations and to sit on a low stool as is traditional when one is in mourning.
