April President's Message

Friends,

We approach the joyous Festival of Freedom which is Pesach (Passover) marking the triumph of our liberation from centuries of slavery. That emancipation was granted by the Divine Spirit who responded to the yearning for freedom that all humanity shares. We will reenact that liberation at the Seder when we recall the bitter oppression that ended when G-d fulfilled his promise to lead us to a Promised Land and to teach us how to live a good and just life.

We are now confronted by another age old tyranny which recurs unpredictably. Disease. The coronavirus is very contagious and is more dangerous to older people - especially those with underlying medical conditions. The mortality rate for this disease is unacceptable. As with most infectious diseases, it is likely that treatments and a vaccine will eventually be found. The question is: how long will it take and how many of our fellow men and women will be lost?

We can show the same faith that our forefathers did during their times of travail. The One who made us all will inspire the ingenuity to create treatments and a cure for this disease.

Last month, we celebrated a joyous Purim with our sister congregations, Beth Am and Beth David. We extend our thanks to all those who prepared and chanted the Megilla. And special thanks to those from the three congregations who prepared and baked the delicious hamantashen. I believe they were the best we've had in years.

At this writing it is unlikely that we will have Pesach services at our shuls this year because of the social distancing that we are all practicing. Shabbat services are also suspended until further notice. We can still daven in private and also on weekdays with social media applications such as Zoom. We had one such service on Sunday March 22. We will notify the Congregation of others.

Happy Pesach,
Harris Honickman

COMMUNITY RESPONSE TO THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

Jewish Family Services has created a helpline service that will provide members of the Jewish Community of Greater Rochester information on available resources, including online counseling, food and medicine supply, volunteer opportunities, and religious-based supports. Call 585-461-0114 or email helpline@jfsrochester.org. JFS is also offering a free "seder in a box" to anyone who is unable to shop for themselves and is without access to Passover food. This is a complete dinner, including a seder plate and all needed seder items. This is only for those that are in need and unable to access food without assistance. Call or email by Friday, March 27 at 4pm, if you, or someone you know, will need such support.

The Jewish Federation of Greater Rochester has launched the Community Relief and Recovery Fund to help our institutions manage through the COVID-19 crisis, address social service needs, and provide emergency assistance to community members in need. Please consider making a donation:

MAKE YOUR PURCHASES AT AMAZON and GOODSHOP AND SUPPORT BHBI AT THE SAME TIME!

Why not contribute to BHBI while making on-line purchases? It's easy to make purchases on-line at Amazon and Goodshop and support BHBI financially at the same time. To support BHBI by making purchases with Amazon or Goodshop, go to the BHBI web page at www.BHBIRochester.org, go to the Donate page and click on the Amazon or Goodshop link. Each time you make a purchase after linking to them from our web page, BHBI gets a percentage of the purchase price. The more you buy in this way, the more BHBI makes! You can also support BHBI by making purchases directly with Amazon Smile. To do so, go to Smile.Amazon.com, sign in as you normally would on Amazon, and select Congregation Beth Hamedresh-Beth Israel as the non-profit organization that you wish to support. Thereafter, every time you make an Amazon purchase at Smile.Amazon.com, BHBI will receive a portion of the cost of your purchase.

GOODSEARCH.ORG

Goodsearch.org is an on-line internet search program that pays non-profit organizations like BHBI a fee every time someone uses their search service. Go to www.Goodsearch.org, log-in (after signing up and designating BHBI as your preferred non-profit), enter the search term that you want and every time that you do a search from that site BHBI will get a small fee. BHBI will benefit from each search you make! You can also reach the Goodshop internet marketplace site from Goodsearch.org, but remember to sign in before purchasing anything so that BHBI benefits.

AD SPONSORS

We are always looking for additional businesses that are interested in placing an ad in the BHBI Bulletin. If you know of someone whose business or company may be interested, please have them contact the congregation at BHBIRochester@gmail.com
